CHRISTI CRADDICK, CHAIRMAN WAYNE CHRISTIAN, COMMISSIONER JIM WRIGHT, COMMISSIONER

RAILROAD COMMISSION OF TEXAS HEARINGS DIVISION

AMENDED ORDER REGARDING EXCEPTION TO INITIAL DISCLOSURES PURSUANT TO TEXAS RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 194

On January 1, 2021, an amended version of Texas Rule of Civil Procedure (TRCP) 194 became effective, requiring parties to a case to automatically provide initial disclosures, whereas the prior version of the rule required disclosure only upon request by a party. Commission rule § 1.51(6) references TRCP 194 rather than providing specific language (See 16 Tex. Admin. Code § 1.51(6) (request to a party for disclosures pursuant to Texas Rules of Civil Procedure 194)). As such, clarification is needed regarding whether parties to proceedings within the jurisdiction of the Railroad Commission of Texas (RRC) should follow the current amended version of TRCP 194. Given that it is unnecessary for many parties before the RRC to engage in the discovery process, it would be overly burdensome to require initial disclosures automatically be provided.

Therefore, in the interest of justice and with good cause shown pursuant to 16 Tex. Admin. Code § 1.3(a) (Exceptions and Suspension of Rules), an ongoing exception to 16 Tex. Admin. Code § 1.51(6) is hereby GRANTED for all cases in the Hearings Division. The exception shall remain in place until Rule § 1.51(6) is amended by the RRC. Parties to a case before the Hearings Division should follow the language set out below unless otherwise directed or ordered by the administrative law judge (ALJ) assigned to the case.
