

RAILROAD COMMISSION OF TEXAS
Critical Infrastructure Division

NOTICE TO NATURAL GAS PRODUCERS, GAS FACILITY OPERATORS AND GAS PIPELINE FACILITY OPERATORS

Winter Weather Forecasted This Week

The National Weather Service has indicated many regions of Texas including West Texas/Panhandle, through Central/North Texas and Hill Country will experience freezing temperatures by Thursday night. Single digit temperatures expected for West Texas and the Panhandle by Friday morning.

The Railroad Commission of Texas (RRC) asks operators to:

- Monitor local, state and national weather reports for updates on potential severe weather impacts, including the National Weather Service and Texas Division of Emergency Management; and
- Monitor and maintain operations for potential impacts, as safety permits.

For guidance, the RRC has previously issued notices with best practices that can be utilized to protect against freezing conditions.
